SHARP CONTENTION AT FORSYTH.

Tuesday's sunbathed crowd of 3000 folks at Forsyth were treated to some sensational racing, the finishes in the third and fourth events being so close that only the judges could tell which horse won.

The fourth race was an especially close one, Glenmoyné, Uncas and Horse Shoe Tobacco landing so that the nod decided the places. Glenmoyné was the favorite, backed to odds on, and his victory was an extremely popular one. Little Barrett rode the Foster sprinter, and although he got into several pockets early, he made up for this at the end, keeping the big horse's head up and riding a really powerful finish.

L. A. Legg had his Punster—Spray colt Lew Hopper in with Caulfield and a cheap lot in the last race, and backing him from 4½ to 1, down to 8 to 5 cleaned up quite a bit over the colt's victory. Sherland rode him and almost threw the race away by overconfidence in the stretch.

Cushing said yesterday, concerning the lot of boys riding at Forsyth, that if one could not get either Clay or Caywood it was no use of figuring on winning. This statement was well illustrated, Caywood having but three mounts and winning with all of them. His rides on Plutus and The Professor were really capable. Clay has gone to Windsor with W. H. Roller.

LIZZIE CAVALIER'S GOOD WORK.

QUEEN CITY RACE TRACK, Ky., April 20.—McConnell's filly Lizzie Cavalier worked five furlongs between the second and third races today in 1:01½. When asked about her speed today, in contrast to her defeat last out, the owner said he could not account for it, as his trainer said she was all right at the time.

The Newport officials punished P. J. Miles with thirty days entry suspension for abusing Jockey Hill after his bad ride on Toots today.

ORNAMENT & CO. TO LOUISVILLE.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 20.—The steeplechase had such a nasty look that Judge Clark seemed to be justified in declaring all bets off.

Chas. Patterson shipped his entire string to Louisville this afternoon. Benares was cooled out and put on car right after his win. Webster fell off Celtic Rad after he passed the judge's stand a winner.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Front de Boeuf is named after the villain in "Ivanhoe." His grandam is Rebecca, named after the heroine in the same book. Somebody asked Coulter if Front de Boeuf didn't mean roast beef. Evidently the person had heard of Tully's gorgeous appetite, which horsemen allude to frequently.—San Francisco Bulletin. This is what an owner gets for being careful in nomenclature. The colt is classically named, though there's no denial entered about Coulter's epicurianism. It's too well known.

F. S. Brown. In the first edition of DAILY RACING FORM of April 11-12 the time of the sixth Oakland race was all awry. The error was telegraphic and corrected in the second edition. The race's fractional time was 27¾, 54¾, 1:21¾, 1:47. In the same race Vincter and not Vincitor was second.

Handspring's work charms the watchers at Gravesend. The old crack heel trouble of the colt is not apparent this spring.

It turns out that J. Porter Ashe controls that good California horse Ruinart. He intends to race him East this year.

The Seagram colt Havoc is doing well under a special preparation for the Suburban Handicap.

CALIFORNIA RACING GOSSIP.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 20.—Queen Nubia was taken very sick after her race today.

McNaughton & Muir's string was attached by Sam Leake on a loan of $1,100.

Riley Grannan, Peter Gaffney, Charley Quinn and Roy Carruthers left for the east today.

The Burns & Waterhouse string goes east next week. Jimmy McCormick will take charge on its arrival in New York.

Buckwa, Ruinart, Salvation and Magnet will meet in a four cornered sweepstake, probably next Saturday, at 1½ miles.

There is a petition in circulation among horsemen asking the two associations to give racing here all summer. The knocking out of district fairs by Governor Budd makes California owners study how they are going to keep wolves from the door between May 15 and November 1. If the two clubs refuse to race, the horsemen will form an association, secure a track as near to San Francisco as possible and race for themselves. Under the circumstances it looks as if San Francisco was to have plenty of racing during the dry season.

Winner—Ch. h. a. by Blue Eyes—Sungbeam.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a long, hard drive; next four driving hard also. Plutus was excellently ridden and was a good horse today. Woodlands was interfered with some on first turn. She ran her race though. Winslow had poor luck. He was coming strong on the end. Watch Southworth, he can beat the same kind his next out. The ride on him was bad. Dockstader was a bit short. He will do next time.
Scratched—Majesta, 91.
Overweights—Cochina, 1½ pounds.

Winner—B. c. by Darebin—Teacher.
Post 30 seconds. Start good. Won cleverly; second and third driving. The Professor was best and best ridden. Caywood made Magnusson look like a stable boy and saved ground on every turn. The winner is likely to be a good colt. The last three were never prominent and all acted green.

Winner—Ch. m. 5, by Wawekus—Cretonia.
Post 12 minutes. Start poor. Won in a long hard drive of two; third handily. Weola is real good right now, so was Anna Mayes. Tern ran a cracking good race. She was none too well handled either during the race, but well saved at the post. Fred K looks good and can win soon. The ride on him was horrible. He was worked the mile after the race. Pitfall seems sour. Nemaha has speed and can win in the mud.
Scratched—Warren Point, 106; Mary L, 107; My Hebe, 107; His Brother, 106; Dr. Pitts, 95; Dago, 112; Oreusa, 93.

61	LADY MAUD	98	9	5	9	9	9	9	J. Webber	Jas. R. Hand	50	100	30

Winner—Ch. g. a. by Glenelg—Moyné.
Post 8 minutes. Start fair. Won first three driving. Glenmoyné was best but was hard pushed by Uncas, who liked the track today and will be dangerous next out. There was a quiet tip out on H. S. Tobacco who was played freely and was in prime condition, but seemed to be slightly outclassed. He will do in a lower grade class. Jennie June showed a world of speed but stopped. Cossack ran a fair race.
Scratched—Assignee, 110.

7575 FIFTH RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $300. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—Ch. c. 4, by Punster—Spray.
Post 12 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden; second and third driving to the limit. Lew Hopper was the best. He was played too. Boy came near throwing the race away on him in final sixteenth. Caufield had a lot of speed but tired. He can win his next. Floreanna tried to run out at the start. Her race was a good one. Chepata had considerable speed. She is a good maiden and was in for work. King Dance was badly cut down on first turn and may have to be destroyed.
Scratched—Simmons, 113; Hessville, 91; The Plutocrat, 103; Joe Mancini, 107.
Overweights—Chepata, 2 pounds.
